May 1989

Jolene Mecham reminds us that the J. S. Smith Annual Spring Field Day will be held Friday, May 5. Track and field games, and refreshment stand are for the enjoyment of students and their parents. For students taking hot lunch, a sack lunch will be furnished that day. The events begin 8:15 a.m. to 2:15 p.m. See you there!

Rhea Carlson reports that the next Impact Meeting will be held at Orem High School Saturday, May 6, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Classes are approximately one hour, so you can take in as many or few as your schedule allows. Varied topics and interest are presented.

Church News: Relief Society Homemaking Day Tuesday, May 9, 10 a.m. Debbie Proctor will be guest speaker. Her topic: food storage.

Sustained: Scot Wroten, Ron Hortin, substitute Sunday School teachers. Nancy Young's Farewell for her mission was held Sunday, April 30. She will enter the MTC on May 24. Best wishes go out to Nancy on her Fiji Mission.

Brent Flory

Brent Flory graduated April 29 from BYU with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Illustration. He attended Ricks College in Idaho for two years acquiring an Associate Degree in Advertising Design. While attending an Equitation class, he met his future wife, Penny Nebeker, who worked and taught riding classes. His final project consisted of five Fine Arts paintings centered around fantasy. Brent's instructor was Jim Christensen. Brent has done illustration work for Continuing Education and the Humanities Departments at BYU. Brent is the father of Jessica, (and one soon to be). He is serving in the Wallburg Ward Bishopric as first counselor. He and wife Penny manage the Cassiar Ranch, owned by Nelson Abell, of Monroe, LA.
